Mount Joy Township in 2019

With cooperation from Mother Nature, 2019 is poised to be another significant year for road improvements. N. Plum Street and nearly one mile of Prospect Road were reconstructed in 2018, and Cassell Road received its final paving after a two-year restoration project. Despite rain storms and soggy ground, Public Works began a major storm sewer installation on Trail Road S to improve drainage conditions. Road widening on Prospect Road and Trail Road S will be followed up next year with repaving. The Mill Road bridge was seriously damaged this year and is currently closed, but plans are in place with Conewago Township to have it replaced.

2019 will be "Year One" for several multi-year projects. The Bear Creek Road/Spring Road intersection will be reconfigured to be safer, and both of those roads will be widened. Beverly Road, between Koser Road and Hershey Road, will be widened and reconstructed. Country Squire Road will also be widened and have stormwater cross pipes replaced. All of these roads will have final paving done in 2020. Last, but certainly not least, we will begin rehabilitation of Harvest Road with drainage improvements while the pipeline crews finish their work. Harvest Road is planned for reconstruction in 2020 and paving overlay in 2021.

Be on the lookout for a new Township website in 2019! One of our key goals is to redesign our website (www.mtjoytwp.org) as a more useful resource for residents and businesses. Plans like the 5-year Road Improvement Plan, applications, and notifications of upcoming events will be readily available and better organized.

Know Where It Flows

Severe storms and flooding, both far and wide, were in the public eye this summer. The need to improve local water quality becomes more apparent with stormwater impacts on our minds. Mount Joy Township is responsible for the water that passes through its storm sewers and drainage pipes, meaning that any pollutants in the runoff are the responsibility of the public. This makes prevention the most effective way to reduce the risk of pollutants entering local waterways.

Roadside storm drains typically collect runoff and convey it to drainage swales or underground pipes; where it goes from there is important to know. Sometimes it is infiltrated back into the water table, but most runoff ends up draining to surface waters like streams, creeks, and rivers. The Susquehanna River is the major recipient of Lancaster County's stormwater.

Pollutants like automobile fluids and household chemicals that reach the storm sewer system are considered illicit discharges. Believe it or not, materials that may seem harmless like grass clippings, mud, and chlorinated pool water are also illicit discharges to our stormwater infrastructure. The Township – residents and property owners – is ultimately responsible for what comes out of drainage pipes and swales. Here are some simple things you can do to help prevent pollution in our local waterways:

- * Never dump liquid waste products into storm drains.
- * Store chemicals away from storm drains.
- * Use good practices when managing grass clippings, woody yard waste, pet waste and septic systems.

Recycling Crisis in the US - Lancaster County - Mount Joy Township

By now, you've heard that recycling has changed in Lancaster County. Lancaster County Solid Waste Management Authority (LCSWMA) asks residents to only place the "Big 4" in their recycling bins: 1) corrugated cardboard, 2) plastic bottles and jugs with a neck, 3) metal food and beverage cans, and 4) glass bottles and jars. We are not the only community impacted by these changes; the "recycling crisis" has created significant challenges for recycling programs across the US.

For years, well-meaning, "wishful recyclers" have incorrectly believed that most things are recyclable. In part, this misconception grew from the waste industry's desire to facilitate a convenient process for recyclers. The message was: "Put it all in your bin; we'll sort it later." Unfortunately, this turned problematic when contamination levels increased. Contamination is when people place materials in the recycling bin that do not belong; the largest importer of recyclable materials from the U.S., China, said "no more!"

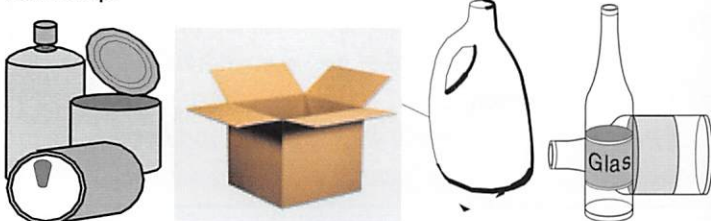

China was the largest consumer of recyclable materials generated in the US. Growing frustrated by high contamination in imported recycling bales, China announced in summer 2017 that they would enforce a crackdown on imported waste and their intent to ban most recyclable materials. They also announced a new quality standard prohibiting contamination from the rate of 5% to .5%, which was significantly more stringent. The hits kept coming; in July 2018 China announced their plan to ban all imported recycled commodities by the end of 2018.

Unfortunately, the US does not have enough domestic demand for recyclable materials to replace the volume China previously bought, leaving the market saturated with more recyclable material than our country can use. Remember, something can only be recycled if there is a demand for that material, by a manufacturer, to be turned into a new product.

This big shift in the market caused significant ripple effects, including lost revenues, higher processing and capital costs for material recovery facilities, higher transportation costs, fewer outlets for materials and increased stockpiling issues. We are now in a financial crisis and it is imperative we fix the contamination problem to make recycling sustainable.

LCSWMA believes the solution is three-fold: 1) simplicity, 2) consistency, 3) and awareness. They are simplifying the recycling process by asking people to only place the "Big 4" in their recycling bin, and standardizing the message by working with municipalities, haulers and business partners to all follow the same guidelines across the county.

This is a huge shift for all of us, and change will not come overnight. But if we work together, perhaps recycling can be better than it was before. Let's "Recycle Right" Mount Joy Township!

Please Note Increase:

As anticipated, with the changes to recycling, there will also be changes to the cost of trash removal. After much consideration, the Township has set forth the following cost for Trash/Recycling for 2019. The semi-annual bill will be in the amount of $110, which equates to $220 per year. Residents who have been on our program since 2007 have seen our bills reduced over the course of the past 11 years as follows.

2007 through 2009 = $108

2010 through 2014 = $99

2015 through 2018 = $90

We will continue to offer the $10 yearly discount ($210) and Seniors over the age of 75 will pay $110 for an entire year.

Missed Stops

Penn Waste, by ordinance, may start collections at 5 am. If your trash and/or recycling is not out when their trucks come through, you are not considered a "missed" stop; Penn Waste is not required to come back for items that were not out when they went through. Customers should also not assume items will be picked up the same time each week. For any given reason, the driver could run your route differently and you could miss your pickup that week. To avoid this issue, make sure all items are placed curbside the night before your pickup day.

TRASH TAGS

Thar She Blows!

When the weather forecast is calling for a windy day, please do not place your recycling out for pick-up.

To avoid recycling all over the neighborhood, keep it for the next week; there is no limit to how much recycling you can put out per week.

Alternative Recycle Containers

Using a receptacle other than our recycling bin? Come into our office for a FREE "Penn Waste" sticker, or two, to place on your container to guarantee pick up of your recycling.

SNOWSTORM COMING?

Don't Be A Victim

SECURE YOUR VEHICLE The majority of car break-ins involve cars parked in the owner's driveway and are unlocked. No matter where you park, ALWAYS close your windows and sunroof and lock your doors.

REMOVE ALL VALUABLES FROM SIGHT GPS units, iPods, phones, laptops and cash are tempting invitations for thieves. Secure valuables in the trunk or take them with you. Do not do this at your destination; the thieves could be watching from afar.

Visible, loose change and gift cards are also popular items with thieves. Even if you're making a quick trip to the gym, coffee shop, local store or gas station, all valuables should be secured in the trunk or removed from the car.

PARKING When parking at home, if possible, park in the garage or close to the house. The outside area should be well lit or have a motion light in the area of your cars. Always lock all doors and windows and remove valuables; remember to remove all keys and garage door openers to prevent access to your home. When parking in public, if possible, park in a well-lit, highly visible area. During holidays or when retail shopping, lock packages and purchased items in the trunk. If you are going to continue shopping, you could move your car to a different location in case a thief is watching the area.

IF A CAR BREAK-IN HAS OCCURRED Call 911; DO NOT touch the car or contents. An officer will view the scene, have the vehicle dusted for fingerprints and photograph, if possible. Provide serial numbers, descriptions and photos of any electronics or high value items.

HELP SOLVE CRIMES IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD

NWRPD is asking residents and businesses to assist the police with investigations and catching criminals. We are attempting to create a video camera user contact list. We are aware many residents and businesses have installed video cameras; these cameras may be gathering information on public roadways and streets. If you have a video camera that collects images outside in the public eye we would like your assistance. It is important for us, while conducting investigations, to see if there is any video camera coverage of the area in question. We will not publish your identity or release your videos; we would only contact you if a crime occurred in front of your home or business to see if your camera(s) caught the criminal act in progress. If it is determined your video would help, you would be contacted to review your recording for any footage that may help. Police departments throughout the country are developing these contact lists due to the increasing use of surveillance cameras by the public. If you are willing to help, please email Detective Frank Ember at FEmber@NWRPD.org, or call him at 717-367-3382, Ext 111, with the location of your cameras and the person to contact if an incident occurs in your area.
